of praier.

For inferiours, and Subiectes.

Vnto vs al that are inferiours and subiectes that we may willingly & gladly, Loue, honore serue, and obey all superior powers, in the, and for the that we maye ioyfully receaue the Gospel, plenteously bringe forth the fruittes therof. And in all thinges chiefely applye our selues, to the maintenance of thy true worshippe, and setting forth of thy Honor and glory. Amen.

For the ingnorant.

Vnto the ingnorant also that theire eyes may be opened, that it woulde please the to shewe thy countenaunce vnto them. That they may knowe thee. and thy Church whiche they condemne as errors: because they eyes are closed vpin darkenes, that as they zeale is nowe in simplicity without knowledge, so they may haue in stead of it, a godlye zeale, grounded on perfecte knowledge: so

A compendious forme so that thy Gospell may fructefy in them also to the gloze of thy holy name. Amen

For the malicyous persecutozs

Euen vnto the malitious persecutozs also, that they maye eyther at the lengthe, receyue thy grace so often, and so mercifullye profered vnto them, and so acknowledge their malice, and retourne vnto thee, to thy greates honoꝝ and gloze, when thou shalt be prayled euen by the mouthe of thy enemies: Or els if they haue vtterlye geuen ouer the selues, vnto continuall hatred of thee and thy worde, and vtterlye reiected all kynde of discipline. What then thou take them awaye from amonge vs, to thy greates honoꝝ and gloze also: when as thy little flocke, beinge deliuered from their tyrannye and oppression, shalt ioy-fully singe vnto thee, of thy contynual goodnesse and wondrousfull deliuerance.
Amen.
